20 MORE AUTO AERIALS ARE SNAPPED OFF

Gettysburg's vandals were active again early this morning when they snapped off 20 auto aerials along S. Washington St. from Ellis Smith's Garage to the Warner Hospital entrance.

Borough police, who discovered the malicious mischief at 6 o'clock this morning, said practically every aerial on the sidewalk side of parked autos had been broken off by the vandal.

Police did not immediately obtain the names of those who suffered the damage, but are keeping a list as the owners call in. Within a short time this morning the following had notified police that the aerials on their cars had been broken: Clarence Wormley, 424 S. Washington St.; Jane Braeshears, rear 99 Steinwehr Ave.; Kenneth Brumack, 268 S. Washington St.; Dennis Weaver, 631 S. Washington St.; and Donald Baker Sr. and Jr., 311 S. Washington St.

Borough Police Chief Jack Bartlett asked the cooperation of everyone in the community in an effort to apprehend the vandal or vandals. He urged anyone who might be looking out a window or stepping out a door and observing someone bending an auto aerial to phone police immediately so they can go to the scene and if possible apprehend the person and question him.

The vandals "obviously do not do anything if they see the police car or other vehicle coming, or if they see someone walking in the street. But it may be possible that some one glancing out a window, or coming out a door might catch them in the act. If we get a call quickly enough it may be possible that police can get there in time," the chief said.

KADEL'S FUND DRIVE TOPS ITS GOAL IN FLA.

The $1.5 million fund drive of Florida Presbyterian College at St. Petersburg went over the top this week, it was announced by the institution's president, Dr. William H. Kadel, who is formerly of Gettysburg.

A last-minute pledge of $32,000 from Thomas Dreier, St. Petersburg writer and editor, pushed the fund drive total to $1,546,525. The goal was $1,535,000.

Dr. Kadel told about 100 persons attending a campaign victory dinner at the college that the campaign also produced several long-term gifts. He announced the college has received irrevocable trusts of $100,000 and has been named beneficiary of a $100,000 life insurance policy.

GETTYSBURG GRAD

Poynton paid tribute to Dr. Kadel's leadership in the campaign in the development of the college. A plaque was presented to Mr. Clapp who noted that the college's needs will continue for many years. He pointed out that aside from capital construction, the college spent $3,860 last year to educate each student. Of this amount $1,837 was paid by the student through his family or student aid. Mr. Clapp announced the college's board of trustees recently voted not to seek or accept federal grants for operating expenses or capital development.

$200 Stolen From Farm Bureau Safe

Burglars have again broken open the safe at the Adams County Farm Bureau building in New Oxford, state police reported today.

U.S. Is Expected To Seek New Indictment Against Reds; Lost First Attempt

By JOSEPH E. MOHBAT

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is expected to seek a new indictment soon against the U. S. Communist party, which has refused to register as an agent of the Soviet Union.

This, it was learned today, is the course most likely to be followed by the Justice Department in reaction to a court decision upsetting a 1961 conviction of the party on the same charge.

Government sources indicated the new indictment will be painstakingly timed — possibly this summer — to allow the government to avoid the pitfall which won the Communists a reversal of the 1961 conviction.

IGNORED LAW

At that time, the party was convicted of failing to register with the attorney general, as required by the Internal Security Act of 1950, and sentenced to pay a $120,000 fine — $10,000 each of 11 days past the deadline in which the party failed to register, and $10,000 for failing to file a registration statement.

The U. S. Court of Appeals reversed the conviction last December. A three-judge panel decided that the party officials who should have registered had the constitutional right to protect themselves from self-incrimination. The panel held further that the burden was on the government to prove that there was someone available to voluntarily register the party—someone who would not be concerned with possible self-incrimination.

REGISTER PARTY

The government, demanding full-court reconsideration, said the law requires that the party be registered, not that the person who performs the registration be a member of the party.

The government made it clear that it felt the party's use of (Continued On Page 3)

Six special events and a week long festival with fireworks nightly will mark the 101st Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg according to plans of the Gettysburg Fire Department.

The observances will begin Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the 72nd Pennsylvania monument in The Angle where Pickett's Charge ended. Sponsored by the Pennsylvania Volunteer Firemen's Association, the program will include a reading of the address given 75 years ago at the dedication of the marker which relates graphically the fighting that took place in The Angle. The Gettysburg Civic Chorus will provide the music for the program. The Catholic War Veterans, Junior Firemen and Gettysburg VFW color guards will participate.

Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin will speak and the Marine Corps School Band of Quantico, Va., will present the concert at the annual memorial service in the high school football field.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Monday through Saturday night the annual festival will be held at Recreation Field, with special fireworks, some recreating scenes connected with the battle. Music for the festival will include the Fairfield High School Band Monday night; Sunny George and His Blue Grass Valley Boys, Tuesday night; Dallastown Boys and Girls Band, Wednesday night; Gettysburg Senior High School Band Thursday night and Littlestown High School Band Friday night.

Four programs are scheduled on the actual anniversary dates.

Wednesday, July 1 at 6 in the evening a program honoring the troops that took part in the first day's fighting will be held at the Peace Light. Dr. Frederick Tilberg, National Park historian, will give a 20-minute talk on the events of the first day. Assistant Fire Chief Robert Heflin will place a wreath honoring the men who fought. The Junior Fire Department firing squad will fire the volley.

PARADE THURSDAY

Thursday, July 2, two events will take place. At 4 o'clock that afternoon a program honoring the troops which took part in the fighting on E. Cemetery Hill on the night of July 2 will be held on that hill at the spot where in prior years campfire programs were held by the park service. Dr. Harry Pfanz, historian for the National Park, will tell of the attack by Confederate units of Hays and Hoke up E. Cemetery Hill and into the cemetery itself before being repulsed. Assistant Fire Chief Charles J. Kerrigan will place the wreath and the Junior Fire Department will fire the volley.

At 7 o'clock Thursday evening the annual anniversary parade will be held, with 48 units scheduled to participate in the procession.

Friday evening at 6 o'clock a service honoring the North Carolina units for their part in Pickett's Charge will be held at the North Carolina monument with Park Historian Martin Conway as the speaker and Fire Chief Robert Hartman placing the wreath while the Junior Firemen fire the volley.

GET $200,000 FROM U. S. FOR TV EDUCATION

This area's prospective educational television station got an anticipated financial boost Friday with the announcement that the federal government had made available a $200,000 grant to help activate the facilities.

The announcement was made in Washington by Rep. John C. Kunkel.

Upon hearing the news, Dr. David H. Porter of Harrisburg, chairman of the engineering committee and a member of the board of directors of the South Central Educational Broadcasting Council, said:

"Now this puts us into position to go into construction and award contracts for equipment so that we can aim at meeting the earliest possible date of programming sometime in September."

SERVES ADAMS COUNTY

The studio in Hershey will serve a population exceeding 1.5 million in the nine counties of Dauphin, Cumberland, Perry, Juniata, Franklin, Lancaster, Lebanon, York and Adams.

The $200,000 grant was awarded by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, according to Kunkel's office.

About a month ago the station received a grant of $100,000 from the State Department of Public Instruction.

Both grants, according to Porter, will go toward the $419,552 cost of buying and erecting equipment, engineering and legal counsel and other costs.

Porter said the council hopes to complete a $250,000 fund-raising drive among industry and business in the nine-county area "sometime next month."

Report On Baker Ready On Monday

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—The Senate Rules Committee is going to submit a report Monday whitewashing its investigation of Bobby Baker, says Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority, resigned under fire after it was disclosed his outside business dealings were very profitable.

"Members of the minority on the committee haven't seen the report," Scott said. "Anything we know we find out through espionage. But at 9:30 a.m. Monday we will be confronted with a report we have never seen."

"Free Men Create Rapid Human Progress" Declares Eisenhower At Dedication

"Wherever communism rules there is forceful control of thought, of expression, and indeed of every phase of human existence that the state may choose to dominate. The touchstone of any free society is limited government, which does only those things which the people need and which they cannot do for themselves at all, or cannot do as well.

"Our own nation was created as this kind of society in a devout belief that where men are free, where they have the right to think, to worship, to act as they may choose—subject only to the provision that they transgress not on the equal rights of others—there will be rapid human progress," said General Dwight D. Eisenhower, former President of the United States, at the dedication this afternoon of a statue to the memory of Taras Shevchenko, Ukrainian, patriot and poet laureate, in Washington, D. C.

FOLLOWS PARADE
The address and dedication followed a parade in the nation's capital at one o'clock.

Continuing his address Gen. Eisenhower said:

"On September 13, 1960, when I signed into law a measure to authorize the erection of this statue, it was my expectation that you would arrange a ceremony of dedication commensurate with the greatness of Taras Shevchenko.

"That day is here and you have come by the thousands from all over the United States; you have come from Canada, from Latin America and Europe, and from as far away as Australia, to honor the memory of a poet who expressed so eloquently man's undying determination to fight for freedom and his unquenchable faith in ultimate victory.

"This outpouring of lovers of freedom to salute a Ukrainian hero far exceeds my expectation.

"But its meaning does not exceed my hope.

KINDLE NEW MOVE

"For my hope is that your magnificent march from the shadow of the Washington Monument to the foot of the statue of Taras Shevchenko will here kindle a new world movement in the hearts, minds, words and actions of men; a never-ending movement dedicated to the independence and freedom of peoples of all captive nations of the entire world.

"During my boyhood it was confidently predicted that within the lifetime of my generation the principles of our free society would become known to all people everywhere and would be universally accepted around the world.

DREAM HAS FADED

"That dream has faded.

"Within the past few decades, the concepts of liberty and human dignity have been scorned and rejected by powerful men who control great areas of our planet.

"The revolutionary doctrines of our free society are far from universal application in the earth.

"HAPPY VACATION"

Time to put away your worries... for at least a little while... very soon your frowning face will... wear a very pleasing smile... for the great outdoors is calling... listen to its magic voice... it says, "come, enjoy my treasures"... they will make you and your special loved ones... will be on your merry way... to the forest or the seashore... where you'll rest and dream and play... each year this transition happens... all over this blessed land... and the benefits we gather... are both wonderful and grand... may you have a good vacation... whether you go near or far... may the gem of happiness... be exactly where you are.

tile farm whose trailer home 200 feet away just collapsed in rubble all around them.

The dead were identified as Earl Miller, 50; Leonard Mosier 38, and Edward Hines, 42, all volunteer firemen.

Mrs. William Paesch, 33, of Baltimore, John Regina, 22, of Marshalls Creek, and Joseph Horvath, 25, of Scranton, a truck driver.

QUESTION DRIVER

State police questioned the truck driver, Albert Koda, 51, of Port Carbon, Pa., for many hours. Koda said he left the trailer and drove the tractor to a service station where he telephoned his boss to report the tire blowouts.

State police said he denied that the tires were burning when he drove off, or that he summoned firemen.

And no one seemed to know who did. Fire Chief Ralph Miller, whose brother, Earl, was among the victims, said he believed it was a truck driver who made the call that brought three engines, all destroyed, to the scene.

ICC SHIPMENT

The Interstate Commerce Commission sent in three investigators, and the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission said it, too, would investigate although apparently having no jurisdiction in the accident.

The truck was bound from Pottsville, Pa., to Forestdale, N.Y., thus was an ICC shipment.

State Rep. Edwin G. Holl urged the Pennsylvania Division of Traffic Safety to limit movement of all dangerous cargo on state roads until new, safer regulations can be prepared.

The snakes caused some worry for a time, but long-time residents of the popular summer and winter resort—its hotels and motels and camps now filled with thousands of adults and children—expressed little concern.

Most of the 150 snakes that Harold and Ruth Livingston kept in glass and wire cages had been accounted long before the truck accident, and most of them were nonpoisonous.

The bulk of the dangerous ones—the cobra, the boa constrictor, rattlers—were caught and killed, or found dead.

Television Loan

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $200,000 grant to help build an educational television station at Hershey, Pa., has been approved by the Welfare Department, it was announced Friday.

The station on Channel 65 will be built by the South Central Educational Broadcasting Council at a cost of $419,552. It will provide coverage in Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Juniata, Lancaster, Lebanon, Perry and York counties.

CAIRO (AP)—A German rocket expert says the United Arab Republic is working on a space program but indicated the first launching of a satellite is some time off.

The television comments of Dr. Wolfgang Pilz Friday appeared to end hopes of a space launching next month during celebrations marking the anniversary of the Egyptian revolution.

"It is not merely for today, but for all time to come, that we should perpetuate for our children's children that great and free government, which we have enjoyed all our lives."

"In the same spirit, it is not merely for today, but for all time to come that we today present to the world this statue of Taras Shevchenko, bard of Ukraine and Freedom Fighter, to perpetuate man's faith in the ultimate victory of freedom.

"With incessant work, and with God's help, there will emerge, one day, a new era, an era of universal peace with freedom, and justice for all mankind."

"Where he alive today, he would be in the forefront of that great struggle.

"And now I recall the words of one of America's greatest sons, Abraham Lincoln.

BRYANT SENDS MORE POLICE TO RIOT CITY

By PAUL WILLS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—

Reinforcements arrived today to push to 230 the number of state law enforcement officers stationed in this racially torn city to maintain order.

Gov. Farris Bryant ordered more men after an on-the-scene inspection and conferences with state law officers. "I did not find much progress toward a solution," he said of the racial situation he has called a "clear and present danger."

The vanguard of the new men got their initial test Friday night when hundreds of whites congregated in a downtown square to listen to segregation speeches.

WHITE PARADE STALLED

At one point several dozen whites formed an impromptu column to march into the Negro section. Local enforcement officers, flanked by police dogs stilled the parade before it got under way.

Integrationists staged no public demonstrations Friday for the first time in about three weeks.

Most of the Negro leaders were in Jacksonville for federal court proceedings aimed at ending the governor's ban on night marches.

SEEK COURT ORDER

Also a part of the hearing were charges of police brutality and inaction in the face of violence by white segregationists. The charges were brought by attorneys for civil rights demonstrators.

They seek a court order requiring state law enforcement officers to block attempts by whites to bar Negroes from St. Augustine's public beach and city square.

HS GRADUATION FOR PRISONERS IN BALTIMORE

By GORDON BEARD

BALTIMORE (AP)—"I'd like to say, 'When you leave here tonight, go out and do good,'" the graduation speaker said. "But I'll have to postpone that."

The graduates laughed. They knew where they were headed: back to their cells in the Maryland Penitentiary.

Except for iron bars, security measures and the presence of a few guards, the ceremony Friday night was much like any high school graduation.

The auditorium was bedecked with bunting in the black-and-white class colors. Baskets of flowers lined the stage and the balcony. The class motto was there above the stage for all to see: "To Understand and be Understood."

GLEE CLUB PERFORMS

The glee club, dressed in white with plaid vests and black string ties, sang three numbers. Favorites among the graduates were given big cheers by their friends. The invited guests included state and education officials and members of the grand jury.

Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin presented equivalence certificates to the 41 senior high graduates. The 47 junior high graduates received diplomas since the penitentiary's School of Adult Education 101 is accredited to the eighth-grade level by the State Board of Education. The youngest graduate was 19, the oldest 50.

"This should prove that disadvantaged men in prison do have the desire and ability to acquire and retain knowledge," said valedictorian Jonathan Sellers, who is serving a 15-year term for armed robbery.

In two school terms at the penitentiary, Sellers, 33, moved from the fifth-grade level to high school valedictorian. He is expected to become a "teacher" at the penitentiary next year.

MAYOR TEACHES SPEECH

Three certified public school teachers act as supervisors, assisted by inmates and volunteers—including the mayor who sometimes teaches speech class.

With self-teaching methods used, the inmate teachers are available to give examinations and assist the students when needed. Classes are held in a special building from 6 to 10 p.m. Monday through Friday, and on Saturday mornings. A minimum of 12 hours of instruction a week is required.

The program, begun in 1951 under the direction of Warden Vernon L. Peppersack, attracted 768 students this year. Peppersack, now state commissioner of correction, was the main speaker Friday.

The cost: $30 a year per student for books and supplies.

2 Assemblymen Take Oath Friday

HARRISBURG (AP)—Two Philadelphians were sworn in as members of the State House of Representatives Friday.

Judge James Bowman of Dauphin County, a former House member, administered the oath of office to Elwood Hipple, Republican, and Earl Vann, Democrat. Members of their families were present.

Hipple won a special election April 28 to succeed the late Rep. Leo McKeever, Democrat, in Philadelphia's 21st District. Vann was elected the same day to succeed the late William Gray, Democrat, in the city's 4th District.

ITALY SEEKS 25TH CABINET SINCE WAR II

ROME (AP)—President Antonio Segni began talks with political leaders today, seeking an end to Italy's 25th government crisis since World War II.

The crisis imperiled a solution to Italy's economic problems, including a long siege of inflation and strikes.

Premier Aldo Moro's center-left Cabinet resigned Friday night in a doctrinal split between the Roman Catholic Christian Democrats and their Socialist partners over increased aid to church schools.

Segni asked Moro to stay on while the president consults with other political figures on finding someone to form a new Cabinet. There was speculation Segni would ask Moro to try again.

LEAVING IS SURPRISE

The resignation caught the nation by surprise, since the additional aid sought by Moro's Christian Democrats for private schools was less than $240,000.

The Chamber of Deputies rejected the budgetary request by a vote of 228-211 Thursday night, with only Christian Democrats in favor of it. Moro's Socialist, Democratic Socialist and Republican partners abstained. The Communists, monarchists and fascists voted against the proposal.

A few Christian Democrats bolted from the government in the secret vote, showing growing dissatisfaction within the party since Moro formed a coalition with the Socialists last Dec. 21. It was the first Cabinet in 17 years in which the Christian Democrats and Socialists were allied.

Actually, the government did not have to resign, since no question of confidence was involved. The Cabinet decided to quit to provide a political "clarification."

SEEK TRIALS IN HIGHER COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Attorneys for 240 persons indicted following their participation in civil rights demonstrations in Chester, Pa., are petitioning to have their cases removed from local courts to the federal District Court.

The petitions, filed Friday, contend that "race consciousness and hostility have so permeated and affected the public life of the community as to render it impossible to obtain a fair trial" in Delaware County Quarter Sessions Court, where the cases were originally scheduled to be heard starting Monday.

The petitions amount to automatic removal. The county district attorney's office said petitions would be filed to have the cases remanded to the lower court. Such petitions must be filed before a hearing, now scheduled for Tuesday morning before President Judge Thomas J. Clary of the District Court, on the defendants' request.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—The former army colonel who led an unsuccessful revolt against the Turkish government in May 1963, won a reprieve from the gallows today only minutes after a fellow plotter was executed.

An appeal to military authorities for clemency won a temporary stay for Talat Aydemir, 47, shortly before he was scheduled to be hanged.

His attorney based the plea on a new anticapital punishment bill introduced in the National Assembly several months ago but not yet ratified. The army said it would rule Sunday or Monday.

No appeal was made on behalf of Fethi Gurcan, 42, a former army major and Aydemir's aide. He died on the gallows, saying "the country shall live."

4-H Sewing Chefs Meet Wednesday

The Strabana 4-H Sewing Chefs met Wednesday at the home of Debbie Reinhart, Gettysburg R. 6. Mrs. Helen Tunison, county extension home economists, attended.

A report on Demonstration Day at the Biglerville High School last Saturday was given by Betty Lott.

A discussion of roundup was held. A committee was named to attend a meeting Friday morning at the home of Betty and Sally Lott, to discuss possible choices of crafts to be directed at 4-H Day Camp July 28 so that materials may be ordered immediately.

Those present at the Friday morning meeting were: Mrs. Helen Tunison, Mrs. John K. Lott, Linda Gantz, Jeannette Keller, Betty and Sally Lott and Ellen Gantz.

Muffins made by the girls and brought to the club meeting were scored and then the club continued with its program of "It's Cake Baking Time." A 4-H layer cake was made and then scored by the club members.

Following the work period, several 4-H songs were sung, led by the song leader, Debbie Reinhart, assisted by Betty Lott.

The next meeting will be held July 8 at the home of Betty and Sally Lott, Gettysburg R. 6.

The Fifth Amendment was a sham. It said the party, through its wide open propaganda program, never has hesitated to be represented in public by its officials, who clearly label themselves members of the party and disregard the possibility of self-incrimination.

Nevertheless, the court refused to reconsider the decision. The Supreme Court, when the department took its case there, also declined to review it.

BITER LOSS

The loss was a bitter pill. It had taken more than 10 years of litigation before the Supreme Court, in June 1961, upheld the constitutionality of an order of the Subversive Activities Control Board, which had found that the party was a Communist-action group, dominated and controlled by the Soviet Union.

The Justice Department still is considering what new steps to take against the party, in the light of the Court of Appeals decision. It has been studying two principal alternatives—whether to reinstate the party or to retry the old indictment.

The latter would require the government to prove that a volunteer was available back in 1961, to register the party. That course of action would be enormously complicated and tenuous, at best, in the courts.

UNUSUAL PLAN

That's why, it was learned, government experts are nearly sold on the reindictment—and on this unusual plan:

—To seek out a volunteer, be he lawyer, newspaperman or other unaffiliated individual.

—To inform the party, somehow, that a volunteer is ready, willing and qualified to register it.

—To give the party a reasonable time to take up the offer and register.

—To go before a grand jury, should the party balk, and obtain a new indictment.

The official decision, of course won't be disclosed until the indictment is returned. Once registered, the party—as the only Communist action group in the United States—would be required to make available its records, report its finances, label its publications and in other ways disclose to the government virtually every move it makes.

It's for that reason that the party—already whittled down to less than 10,000 members—is fighting to the last ditch to avoid formally registering with the Justice Department.

College Obtains

Loan To Expand

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Community Facilities Administration announced Friday a loan of $1.6 million to the York, Pa., Junior College to finance construction of a dormitory to accommodate 268 men students and a college union with dining facilities for 600.

At the same time, the Housing and Home Finance Agency announced a $759,000 grant to the Port Authority of Allegheny County, Pa., which is an additional grant under the mass transportation program.

A grant of $2,113,000 was made to the Port Authority in June, 1963, to help finance the construction and testing of a new-concept rapid transit system. That grant was supplemented by $1,057,000 in local funds.

Gov. Of Miss. Appeals To Hill Country People To Search For Missing 3

By MICHAEL SMITH

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—With a personal appeal from the governor to people of this hill country "to search your own premises," the search continued today for three civil rights workers who mysteriously vanished six days ago.

"Take a few hours of your own time to search for clues," Gov. Paul B. Johnson said in a broadcast from a local radio station.

Johnson came to Philadelphia late Friday as state and federal officers—joined by 100 U.S. sailors—again fought off snakes and insects while wading through swamps in their fruitless search for the trio.

URGES FBI ACTION

Earlier, former CIA Director Allen Dulles had recommended to President Johnson that the FBI's role against "terroristic activity" in Mississippi be expanded.

Dulles met Friday with the President to report on his two-day White House mission to Mississippi. The President and Dulles conferred by long-distance telephone with Gov. Johnson during the meeting.

Gov. Johnson, referring to the disappearance as the "mysterious missing persons case," called on all residents of Neshoba County—whites, Negroes and Indians—to cooperate in the search.

GLAD FOR SAILORS

"I do want to assure the people here that the sailors have come to aid us," Gov. Johnson said. "We're glad to have them. They're fellow Americans."

The sailors are from the nearby Naval Auxiliary Air Station in Meridian.

"We do not know whether these people are alive or dead," Johnson said in his 10-minute radio talk. He expressed confidence the three men—last seen Sunday night—would be found.

"I don't know how long it will take," he added. "It might not be in my lifetime."

Shortly before the governor's arrival here, the Mississippi Highway Patrol said the blue station wagon used by the trio had been burned at least 12 hours after they vanished.

The charred vehicle used by Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andy Goodman, 20, both of New York City, and James Chaney, 22, Meridian Negro, was located in a lonely area northeast of this town of 5,000 Tuesday.

Today's Talk

THE ONES NEAREST

It has become an old saying that a man — or woman, for that matter — is rarely a notable person in his or her own immediate surrounding. Perhaps I should use the word appreciated, rather than notable, for that is what it amounts to. One can be quite notable yet little appreciated by those in the same community.

Many characters whose books we have read, or whose deeds have made them famous, might not appear to us near by as associates and friends, as when known only by reputation. One of the most interesting letter writers, in my judgment, was W. H. Hudson, that beloved writer on nature subjects: He had few close friends, but those were genuine. Even his biographer, and friend, Morley Roberts, once wrote to him saying that he did not really know him. This prompted Hudson to reply that the last words of his favorite brother were these: "Of all people I know, you are the only one I have ever known."

It is true that we are often better known by those with whom we have not had intimate contact than by our nearest and dearest of kin. The ones nearest to us, after all, are those who might be able to fathom what I might express as the inner burial of ourselves, but it rarely works out that way.

The fact that we are quite a puzzle to ourselves undoubtedly has much to do with the misunderstanding and lack of understanding on the part of those with whom we are in closest contact. On the other hand, what opportunities we let fly past without even attempting to unbury the mystery, or perhaps the secret, to that one personality. Little keys often unlock great doors! Perhaps the little key of tact, of kindness in an unusual way, or of some surprise deftly arranged, would open the big door to many a one long closed. One of the greatest and most important of all doors in this life is that of love. And ever since the world began it has taken but a tiny key to open it.

How tragic that this one door is so often kept closed to the one nearest and dearest. Isn't it worth the effort to put that little unused key to work?

COURAGE

This is courage: To remain brave and patient under pain; Cool and calm and firm to stay in the presence of dismay; Not to flinch when foes attack, Even though you're beaten back; Still to cling to what is right, When the wrong possesses might.

This is courage: To be true To the best man see in you; To remember, temptest-fossed, Not to whimper "All is lost!" But to battle to the end While you still have strength to spend;

Not to cry that hope is gone While you've life to carry on.

This is courage: To endure Hurt and loss you cannot cure; Patiently and undismayed, Facing life still unafraid; Glad to live and glad to take Bravely for your children's sake, Burdens they would have to bear If you fled and ceased to care.

School Bus Plan Gets New Support

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A commission on human relations recently formed by the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, has given its backing to a city plan to promote racial integration in public schools by transporting some school children by bus.

The object is to break down racial boundaries in the schools caused by the existing patterns in housing.

The Catholic commission, while noting the disadvantages of the busing plan, said Friday, "The concept of the neighborhood school can, however, be abused... to insist on the neighborhood school policy as an inviolable principle in every instance would be effectively to promote segregated education."

DAUGHTER OF BARRY TO WED

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—With 800 persons looking on, Sen. Barry Goldwater will escort his 20-year-old daughter down the aisle tonight as she becomes the bride of an oil company junior executive.

Margaret Ann Goldwater—a tall, tanned, blue-eyed blonde—is marrying Richard Arlen Holt, 26, of Beverly Hills, Calif.

The 11-minute ceremony will be in Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in downtown Phoenix. It is the same church, although not the same building, in which the senator was christened 55 years ago.

Goldwater may be limping a bit at the ceremony. His son, Barry Jr., and the prospective son-in-law threw the senator in the family swimming pool Thursday night. Goldwater was washing down the pool deck with a hose when he fell fully squirted the two young men.

The senator suffered a slightly pulled tendon in the horseplay. He and his wife took part in rehearsals Friday night.

ANGELS PUSH STREAK TO 11 GAMES FRIDAY

By MURRY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Angels are having so much fun, you'd think they already were playing in Disneyland.

Their fun, however, isn't costing them anything. It's strictly at the expense of the rest of the American League.

The Angels extended their winning streak to 11 games Friday night, shutting out Kansas City 1-0 and 6-0 and moving into sixth place, just one-half game behind Cleveland and two back of fourth-place Minnesota.

The streak is the longest in the league in 2½ seasons and the longest in the majors in slightly more than two seasons.

The New York Yankees won 13 consecutive games in September 1961, while the Los Angeles Dodgers picked up 13 in a row in May and June of 1962.

The Angels could tie those strings by beating the Athletics tonight and Sunday.

All of this comes at a time when the Angels reportedly are considering a short move south from Los Angeles to nearby Anaheim, site of Disneyland.

The shutouts Friday night gave Los Angeles three in the last five contests. Curiously enough, neither starting pitcher was around at the finish. Still, veteran Bo Belinsky earned his third victory in the streak while rookie Bob Meyer recorded his first major league triumph.

BALTIMORE WINS
Meyer was replaced by Bob Lee in the seventh inning of the second game after Belinsky needed help from Bob Duliba in the ninth inning of the opener.

Elsewhere in the AL, Minnesota blanked Chicago 2-0 before losing 9-4, Baltimore whipped Washington 9-4 in 13 innings, Detroit nipped New York 1-0 in 11 and Boston edged Cleveland 3-2.

Belinsky, who now has four straight victories and a 6-3 record, scattered six singles and didn't allow a runner past second base until Ed Charles singled and Rocky Colavito walked in the ninth. Duliba came on and retired the Athletics without further trouble.

Meyer gave up five hits in the nightcap before leaving for a pinch hitter in the sixth. Lee held Kansas City hitless the rest of the way. Willie Smith, the pitcher turned outfielder, drove in two runs with a single and a bases-loaded walk for the Angels.

Twins' rookie Gerry Arigo had a no-hitter for eight innings, but Mike Hersberger led off the ninth with a line single to right field. Arigo, 23-year-old left-hander had allowed only four base runners—two hit batsmen, an error and a walk—until then. Harmon Killebrew gave Arigo all the support he needed with a two-run homer in the sixth.

Wins 40-Lap Race At Williams Grove
MECHANISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Dick Tobias of Lebanon won the 40-lap midseason championship feature race for modified stock cars Friday night at Williams Grove Speedway.

Some 10,000 fans saw Tobias, who has won seven 25-lap features this season, take the lead on the eighth lap and cross the finish line 15 lengths ahead of Johnny Dubendorf, Lewistown.

Leroy Felty, Jonestown, was third.
The winning time was not recorded since there were eight restarts because of minor mishaps.

CARDS LACE BUNNING BUT PHILLIES WIN

By TOM PENDERGAST
Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Baseball has returned to normal for Jim Bunning, who was no perfect pitcher Friday night against the St. Louis Cardinals.

Bunning, who hurled a 6-0 perfect game against the New York Mets last Sunday, had any hopes of a repeat dashed in the first inning when Curt Flood led off with a double for the Cardinals.

"I just heaved a big sigh when he hit that ball and said to myself, 'well things can't go back to normal now and we can start concentrating more on ball games,'" Bunning said.

CLUBBED FOR 11
The Cardinals continued to show little respect for the past by hammering Bunning for 11 hits, and driving him out in the eighth inning. But the league-leading Phillies used two-run homers by Cookie Rojas, Richie Allen and Clay Dalrymple for a 6-5 victory.

Bunning left with two men on in the eighth and both runners scored to tie the count at 4-4. Another tallied in the inning, giving St. Louis a 5-4 lead and setting up Dalrymple's clutch ninth inning shot.

Flood hit a slider that hung high and outside, said Bunning, the first to throw a winning perfect game in 42 years in a regular season game.

NOT BOTHERED
"That experience Sunday did not bother me a bit tonight," said the lanky right-hander, who was traded by Detroit to the Phillies for Don Demeter during the winter. "I felt free and easy and I wasn't concerned about how many more perfect innings I'd pitch. That's why I was kind of glad Flood got that hit in the first."

"I had a good fast ball and fairly good control, but I hung my slider too many times and my curve ball was no good at all. I got going pretty good from the fifth into the eighth, but I knew I was ready to leave then."

GIANTS WIN
The victory kept the Phils one game ahead of the second place San Francisco Giants who defeated Los Angeles 4-3 Friday night.

Ed Roebuck got the victory in relief, his second win in four decisions.
Ken Boyer drove in Flood in the first inning with a t-woutu single. Then in the third the Cards added another run. Lou Brock doubled, took third on a sacrifice and was caught in a rundown when Boyer grounded to Rojas. Boyer took second on the play and scored on Bob Skinner's single.

Rojas tied the score in the fifth after Tony Gonzalez had walked.

In the next inning Johnny Callison was safe on Dick Groat's error and Allen smacked a 430-foot drive for his 15th homer.

The cards scored three times in the eighth on two doubles, a single, a walk, a sacrifice fly, and a ground ball.

In the ninth, Gonzalez doubled and scored on Dalrymple's homer off reliever Ron Taylor.

Third Baseman Has Meningitis

BOSTON (AP) — Doctors maintained a close watch today over Cleveland third baseman Max Alvis after an attack of spinal meningitis struck the 26-year-old baseball player.

Alvis was taken to Boston's Sancta Maria Hospital late Friday when he complained of a high temperature and stiffness in the neck. But it wasn't until the sixth inning of the game against the Red Sox that George Strickland, acting manager of Cleveland, learned of the seriousness of the ailment.

Dr. Thomas Tierney, team physician for the Red Sox, said he believed the disease was arrested "just in time."

"He's a pretty sick boy," Tierney added, "but we believe we got it in its early stages."

Doctors ruled out the possibility of a quarantine for the Cleveland team. But sulfa tablets, which have been successful in combating the disease, were ordered for the Indians.

PHILLY WILL BUY STADIUM
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mayor James H. J. Tate says the city will take real estate millionaire Jerry Wolman up on his offer to sell Connie Mack Stadium, home of the Philadelphia Phillies baseball team, for 50 cents.

Wolman, who recently purchased the stadium for $725,500, had offered to sell it to the city for 50 cents, for the specific purpose of improving or reconstructing it as a modern all-sports stadium—an alternative to the plan for a new stadium at another location.

The city and a group of private investors including the Pennsylvania Railroad, are involved in plans to build a stadium on stilts over PRR tracks near its 30th Street station.

Wolman, who opposes that plan, said Thursday that the Philadelphia Eagles pro football team, which he owns and which would presumably be a major tenant of any new stadium, would not go along with the 30th Street project.

Tate, while insisting that "the door for negotiations has not been closed," followed up Friday with the city's intention to accept Wolman's offer.

CUBAN STOPS VINCE SHOMO
NEW YORK (AP)—Jose Stabile performed as expected Friday night.

First the Cuban, a 3-1 favorite, stopped Vince Shomo of New York in 1:08 of the sixth round at Madison Square Garden, then he hollered, "Get me Griffith."

Emile Griffith is the world welterweight champion. It is customary for all contenders to yell for a title fight after a victory, especially on television, and Stabile, despite his difficulty with the English language, did not disappoint.

It was the eighth victory for Stabile, who is ranked third among the welterweight contenders. Shomo is No. 4.

STOP BOUT
Referee Joe LoScalzo stopped the spirited scrap as the more experienced Cuban hammered the bleeding, apparently tired underdog around the ring. Shomo was bleeding from cuts on the mouth, over the right eye and from the nose.

But the New Yorker, making his Garden debut as a main eventer, gave Stabile's rehearsed jaw a severe testing. It was Jose's first bout since he suffered a broken jaw in training eight months ago.

The defeat snapped Shomo's win streak at five. His record is 12-7-1. Stabile's record is 23-2-1.

Stabile weighed 146½ pounds, Shomo 148½.

The American Legion solidified its first place position by scoring two runs in the last of the final inning to nip the Exchange Club 7-6 Friday evening.

From start to finish the game was well played as the lead exchanged hands several times.

Pinch hitter Leo Burke's 10th-inning single bailed the Cubs out in their seasaw game with the Colts. The lead changed hands four times in the last two innings before Burke's hit brought Doug Clemens home with the winner.

Thunderstorm Stirs Up Lake In Nevada
LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Something came between Las Vegas and its 11-mile distant neighbor, Henderson: A lake.

A violent thunderstorm drenched Henderson Friday. Then came a flash flood—turning a 12-square mile patch of desert between the two cities into a lake.

In places, water was three feet deep. It covered the Las Vegas-Henderson highway with bumper-deep water for a mile and a half and set a house trailer adrift.

GIANTS BEAT DODGERS 4-3; METS WIN 8-4

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

You just know things are going right for the Philadelphia Phillies these days. They've got a pitcher who can't pitch helping a hitter who couldn't hit. That's the kind of weird combination which weaves winners.

In other NL action, San Francisco nipped Los Angeles 4-3, Pittsburgh whipped Cincinnati 8-3, New York topped Milwaukee 8-4 and Chicago edged Houston 7-6 in 10 innings.

The victory maintained Philadelphia's one-game lead over the Giants who parlayed eighth-inning errors by Maury Wills and Jim Gilliam into an unearned run and their second straight victory over the Dodgers.

Tom Haller's sacrifice fly drove in the run off Los Angeles' reliever Bob Miller—the first run off Miller in 31 2-3 innings.

The Pirates pounded three Red pitchers for 13 hits with Bill Virdon and Roberto Clemente contributing three apiece. Virdon had a triple and a two-run double and Clemente ripped a pair of doubles.

Starter Joey Jay, who gave up nine of the hits, was the loser. The Mets exploded for an eight-run second inning with homers by Charlie Smith and Joe Christopher, the latter a grand slam, doing the major damage, and routing Warren Spahn.

Tracy Stallard survived three Milwaukee homers and went the distance to pick up the victory.

Pinch hitter Leo Burke's 10th-inning single bailed the Cubs out in their seasaw game with the Colts. The lead changed hands four times in the last two innings before Burke's hit brought Doug Clemens home with the winner.

Gettysburg Little League

The Rotary increased its league to a game and a half by coming from behind to nip the Gettysburg National Bank 14-11 Friday afternoon in a long playing contest.

The Rotary tallied six times in the fourth to snatch the decision. The runs were scored on four hits including singles by Tim Bowling, Ron Kuykendall, Ron Bigham, a double by Jeff Crushong and three Bank errors.

In the first inning the National Bank took what looked like a commanding 6-1 lead. Singles by Dick Redding, Doug Kennel and Steve Toddes plus three Rotary miscues paved the way.

Jeff Crushong started on the hill for the Rotary but needed help from winner Jim Flynn. Larry Johnson received the starting call for the Bankers, but gave way to Jim Williams in the fourth. Flynn is now 2-1 on the season while the loss was Johnson's third in four verdicts.

AAU TOURNEY OPENS TODAY
NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — The National AAU Track and Field Championships, forerunner to next weekend's Olympic Trials, started a two-day run at Rutgers University today.

Finals on tap today included the pole vault—with 17 entrants who have gone over 16 feet—javelin, broad jump, shot put, 100-meter dash, 110-meter hurdles and the 10,000-meter run. The rest will be completed Sunday.

The first two American finishers in each event will make up the U.S. team that opposes Russia's best in a duel meet at Los Angeles next month. The first six finishers in 17 of the 19 events—including the 10,000 meters and the 2-mile walk—qualify for the Olympic Trials in New York next weekend.

BILLIE JEAN IS TALKATIVE TENNIS STAR

By JOHN GALE
Associated Press Writer
WIMBLEDON, England (AP) — "That's what I mean about you, Billie Jean. You're just plain dumb."

"Come on, Billie. You can do better than that."

"For goodness sake, get on with it, girl."

The author of this torrent of non-stop abuse and exhortation is—Billie Jean Moffitt herself.

One of Wimbledon's most likeable and popular competitors, the 20-year-old Californian from Long Beach spills more words on the court than tennis shots.

Billie Jean shocks herself with her own wordiness.

"If only I could keep my mouth shut," she bemoaned to a newsman, "it would be a whole lot better."

"I just talk too much. But there it is, I'll never be the quiet type."

GOOD, BAD SHOTS

In the latest of her three Wimbledon campaigns, Billie Jean is mixing up good and bad shots, dropping sets unexpectedly and talking to herself harder than ever.

In spite of indifferent form, she should however reach the semifinals where her path may be barred by the holder, Marge Smith of Australia.

They have met five times—and Big Marge has won four times out. Billie Jean turned back the Australian in the Wimbledon championships two years ago, but lost the return match in the 1963 final.

"My main problem is I don't play enough tennis all the year round," said little Miss Moffitt.

When British unknown Margaret Lee stole the first set from her Friday, Billie Jean responded to the challenge with her most devastating form. She ran out a 3-6, 6-4, 6-2 winner to move into the round of 16.

UPHILL BATTLE

Chuck McKinley of San Antonio, Tex., the defending men's champion, had an uphill 8-6, 6-4, 2-6, 6-4 victory over British Davis Cupper Billy Knight in the fourth round, dropping his fourth set at this Wimbledon.

Others through to the quarter-finals include top seeded Roy Emerson of Australia, who won in straight sets against Arthur Ashe of Richmond, Va., the first Negro to be chosen for the U.S. Davis Cup squad.

ROME (AP) — The Chamber of Deputies rejected Premier Aldo Moro's plan for financial aid to church and other private schools Thursday night, handing him his sharpest rebuke since he put together his center-left coalition a half year ago.

VA Clarifies Law On Blind Veterans

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Veterans Affairs Bureau says there has been some confusion in regard to the recently enacted law expanding pension coverage of blind veterans.

The new law expanded coverage to include those veterans blinded in peacetime by illness as well as those blinded in wartime by wounds. The bureau noted Thursday, however, that the injury or illness which resulted in blindness must have been service-connected.

Disability payments amount to $50 a week.

25,000 ARE EXPECTED AT GRID BATTLE

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Can George Mira make it as a pro? Is Scott Appleton a $104,000 football player? How good is Don Trull?

The answers to some of these questions will be clearer after tonight's All-America football game at War Memorial Stadium. Of the 58 players involved in the East-West game, all but eight will be playing pro ball during the 1964 season.

Those figures you see on your television (ABC) will be real, live sweating athletes, and no re-run of last season. The season begins in earnest for these young men in the game co-sponsored by the American Football Coaches Association and the Buffalo Evening News.

About 25,000 fans are expected at kickoff time, 8:30 p.m. EST.

JOINS '49ers

Mira, the fabulous University of Miami quarterback who gained almost three miles in his college career, will do the passing for the Eastern team coached by Pete Elliott of Illinois. Mira is due to seek the quarterback job with the San Francisco 49ers later this summer.

Coach Bob Devaney of Nebraska and the West is torn between Dennis Clardige of his own Cornhusker squad and Trull of Baylor. He probably will alternate the two quarterbacks, depending on the situation. Trull, who supposedly got $100,000 to sign with the Houston Oilers, is the pro type who throws from the pocket. Clardige, signed by Green Bay, combines roll-out running with passing and may be used as a half-back by Vince Lombardi with the Packers.

The weather man says it will be a typical summer night that will melt a few pounds off the big boys. Warm, humid and sweaty is the forecast.

PALMER HOLDS STROKE LEAD IN $100,000 OPEN

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two traffic jams were on today as the $100,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament went into its third round.

One was on the Highland Park municipal course, which is reeling from sub-par onslaughts led by Arnold Palmer. A flock of money-seeking talent is tangled near the top for the $20,000 stretch drive payoff.

The other is on the Ohio-Pennsylvania Turnpike, which is filled with 54 hopefuls who failed to make the 144-stroke halfway cutoff. They are headed for Philadelphia, scene of next week's $120,000 Whitmarsh tourney. They plan to sneak in a few practice rounds there, hoping to do better than they did here. That is a weekly problem to many of them.

The tournament trail is not a golden one for many of the newcomers. The 54 forfeited their $100 entry fee and most of them—unless they won a PGA tournament—must play a qualifier to get into the Whitmarsh field with the privilege of paying a $120 entry fee.

Another group faces the same problem here as the field is cut to 60 after today's round.

Palmer had no trouble with cutoff problems. He carved out an eight-birdie 64 Friday, his best total of the year for a 36-hole total of 131. This is the best halfway mark for anyone so far this season.

But he couldn't shake off a newcomer, 23-year-old Richard H. Sikes Jr. of Springfield, Ark., the 1961 and 1962 Public Links king and the 1963 collegiate champ. Sikes, appearing in his first PGA tournament—he turned pro just after the Masters—also had an eight-birdie 64 and was only a stroke back at 132.

Third after a 65 was top money-winner Jack Nicklaus with 133. Al Geiberger, first-round leader, and George Bayer were at 134, with Tony Lama, Rex Baxter and Terry Dill deadlocked at 135. Sub-par scores

MOSCOW (AP) — An 18-member Mexican mission ended a two-week tour of Soviet industrial facilities today and indicates it will recommend increased purchases of Soviet industrial equipment.

The mission, which also visited Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Poland, included specialists in oil and petrochemical industries, mining, machine tools, building equipment, agricultural machinery, electric power and railroads.

They were boasted by 57 of the survivors, and 12 others hit it on the nose for the first two rounds.

National Open champion Ken Venturi failed to survive the cutoff point. He missed by one stroke, with a score of 75-70-145.

The tournament ends Sunday.

SOVIET GIVES CUBA CONTROL OF MISSILES

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union is reported to be handing over the operation of its anti-aircraft missiles in Cuba to the Castro military forces—but with a warning against trigger-happy firing at U.S. reconnaissance planes.

The transfer of the missile operations from Russian to Cuban hands is—according to information obtained by the United States—going on as the Russians near completion of their troop withdrawal.

The information indicates 600 to 800 Soviet officers and men left Cuba last month and about 1,200 more are still to be withdrawn. The Soviets will leave behind, however, what is described as a permanent training mission of 800 to 1,000.

24-BASE NETWORK

At the height of the "eyeball to eyeball" missile crisis in October 1962 the Russians were believed to have 22,000 or more troops in Cuba.

The 24-base network of surface-to-air missiles — SAMs — the Russians are turning over is believed still capable of shooting down the American high-altitude reconnaissance planes that are patrolling Cuba.

The information here is that the central command governing the SAM sites is still under control of Soviet officers. Also, officials have given support to published reports that the advanced Soviet radar installed in the missile system has been dismantled and withdrawn. This would reduce the effectiveness of the missiles and their ability to knock down the swift American jets.

OAS CONSIDERS BREAK

In another development Friday, the Organization of American States voted 17 to 0 to call a meeting of hemisphere foreign ministers here July 21 to consider breaking all diplomatic and economic ties with the Castro government. Mexico abstained in the vote.

Under the Inter-American Treaty of Mutual Assistance, Venezuela has asked the OAS to adopt sanctions against Cuba—the severing of diplomatic ties, a halt in economic relations and suspension of sea and air communications.

LEBANON, Pa. (AP) — One soldier was killed and another injured seriously Friday in a three-mile crash on Route 22, five miles east of Fredericksburg.

State police identified the dead man as John Surowiec, 23, Spotswood, N.J., stationed at Ft. Ritchie, Md.

Listed in serious condition at Lebanon Veterans Administration Hospital was Delmar D. Greenman, 23, McGraw, N.Y., also stationed at Ft. Ritchie.

State police said a tractor-trailer, driven by Willis Keigley, 30, Earlville, Ill., was making a left turn off the four-lane highway when it collided with two eastbound cars.

The cars were driven by Surowiec and Miss Flora L. Frantz, 18, of Bethel R. 1, police said.

Keigley and his brother, William, 32, were treated at Good Samaritan Hospital here and released. Miss Frantz was treated for minor injuries by a physician.

Employer Fined
On Safety Charge
DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Israel W. Bray, president of Bray Brothers, a Fallington construction firm, was fined $200 Friday on charges of safety violation in connection with the death of two workers in a sewer trench cave-in.

Justice of the Peace Clayton L. Lewis imposed the maximum fine of $100 on each of two charges against Bray. The state department of Labor and Industry charged Bray had failed to have shoring in the 13-foot trench and also had not notified the department of plans to dig the trench.

James Davis, 54, of Trenton, N.J., and Joseph Gerhart, 40, of Levittown, were killed in the cave-in May 19.

INDIAN PRIME MINISTER ILL
NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Indian Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri is suffering from what physicians term overstrain and has been ordered to take a complete rest, informed source said today.

Physicians found Shastri suffering from a slight rise in temperature this morning and ordered all his engagements canceled, the source told reporters.

The physicians put no time limit on the rest period for Shastri but said he must not engage in any official duties for the next few days at least.

Shastri, who was sworn in June 9 as successor to the late Prime Minister Nehru, suffered a heart attack in 1959 but has been reported in good health in recent years.

The job of leading the world's biggest democracy has been telling on him in the last few weeks, however, and he has looked fatigued.

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP) — A Cumberland County man is dead and two Harrisburg youths are hospitalized as a result of a truck-car collision at the intersections of Routes 11 and 233, about 10 miles south of here.

Harold N. Hammond, 56, of Mechanicsburg R. 4, driver of the small truck, died Thursday night about 3 1/2 hours after the accident.

Injured were James D. Welcomer, 17, and Edward J. Fromkin, 17, occupants of the car. Both were taken to Carlisle Hospital where Welcomer was reported in satisfactory condition with cuts and bruises.

Fromkin, identified by state police as driver of the car, was transferred to Harrisburg Hospital with a possible fractured skull and multiple cuts. His condition was listed today as unsatisfactory.

White House Botches Press Release Of Missing Workers

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Reedy, the slow-talking, pipe-smoking White House press secretary, faced waiting newsmen and announced gravely that one item of information he had furnished earlier was "inadvertently accurate."

Of course, this was only a slip of the tongue—he quickly said he meant to say "inadvertently inaccurate"—early last night following a stream of misinformation from the White House.

Seldom, if ever, in recent memory has the White House put out so much inaccurate information as it did in announcing the deployment of federal military forces in the search for three young civil rights workers who vanished Sunday in Mississippi.

CHANGES STORY
At his midday briefing for reporters Thursday, Reedy announced that President Johnson had ordered 200 Marines based at Meridian, Miss., not far from the search site, to join the hunt.

And he said they would be augmented by eight Marine helicopters.

Asked whether the move had been taken at the request of Gov. Paul Johnson of Mississippi, Reedy indicated there had been no request, but added: "This is a cooperative effort. There has been complete cooperation at all levels."

Minutes after newsmen had dispatched this word, and even as they were finishing their dispatches, Reedy personally contacted them at their telephones and said he was misinformed—that the Marines were coming from outside Mississippi and only the Marine helicopters were Mississippi-based.

GOVERNOR SURPRISED
Gov. Johnson was saying in Jackson that he was surprised by the movement of Marines—that several days ago he had offered the use of National Guardsmen familiar with the area for the search.

Shortly after 5 p.m., Reedy met reporters for a second time and announced that one item he had conveyed at his noon-hour briefing had been "inadvertently inaccurate."

He said the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been informed that Marine personnel from Meridian—where there is no Marine base—would be used in the search. He said the Marines "turned out to be sailors."

He volunteered the information that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had called Gov. Johnson since the original announcement, which had been allowed to stand unchallenged for five hours, "to straighten out this matter."

"INADVERTENCE"
A newsman, mindful of Reedy's statement that one bit of information had been inaccurate, asked whether Gov. Johnson had been aware in advance that military people were being dispatched to the search site.

"There was an inadvertence," said Reedy. "There was a slip-up somewhere."

Thus did the White House spokesman concede that he had been overstating the case earlier when he had spoken of "complete cooperation at all levels."

At this point, one reporter asked Reedy had been correct in reporting that eight Marine helicopters were being used in the search.

"I believe," said the press secretary, "these will turn out to be Navy helicopters."

There was no further White House explanation of the whole incident.

University To Show Farmers Experimental Forage Plots At Annual Field Day June 30

By THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

Adams County farmers will see much of interest at the annual Forage Field Day, June 30, at the Agronomy Research Farm of the Pennsylvania State University near Centre Hall.

Thomas E. Piper

Tours of experimental plots, operation of new forage handling machinery and exhibits by departments in the Pennsylvania State University College of Agriculture will be featured among the day's events. Activities will begin at 10 a.m. Extension and research personnel are working together to make the Field Day most productive.

Forage research plots will show new forage varieties as well as fertilization and management studies of forage crops, according to Agronomists John E. Baylor and John B. Washko, cochairman of the Field Day.

BRIEF TALKS

After lunch, brief talks will cover corn silage, nutritive value of forages and harvesting schedules. Additional tours will round out the afternoon schedule. Lunch will be served by the Centre Hall Grange.

Guests will be welcomed by Chris M. Nissley, president of the Pennsylvania Grassland Council. A tribute to Howard B. Sprague, retiring head of the department of agronomy at Penn State, will be made by Robert E. Wagner, president of the American Grassland Council. The two Grassland Councils are cosponsors of the Field Day along with the Penn State College of Agriculture.

The Agronomy Research Farm is on highway 53 between Centre Hall and Potters Mills, 15 miles east of the campus.

CONTROL OF CORN

Moisture is necessary to obtain satisfactory weed control with the different herbicides, particularly atrazine.

When the soil is very dry at the time atrazine is applied, shallow cultivation helps to stimulate the activity of atrazine. This practice often gives good weed control of broadleaf weeds and grasses.

Atrazine should be used as a pre-emergence spray or used as a post-emergence when the weeds are less than 1 1/2 inches

Taneytown

TANEYTOWN — Thomas H. Smith was installed as president of the Taneytown Lions Club Wednesday night at Taney Inn. He succeeds Dr. Frank O. Wargny. Installation ceremonies were conducted by Massey Roe, past international director of Lions International.

Other officers installed were: First vice president, Donald Lawry; second vice president, Delmont Koons; third vice president, Eric Glass; directors, Kenneth Gilds, Theodore Fair, James Trenary and Glenn Bolinger; tail twister, Frank Dunham; Lion tamer, Argyle Kaufmann and secretary-treasurer, Kenneth C. Shorb.

Frank O. Wargny presented a president's pin and gavel to Smith who in turn presented a past president's pin to Wargny, who gave a report on the highlights of his year in office. This year completed 10 years of 100 per cent perfect attendance for the Taneytown Lions.

The next meeting will be a family picnic at Memorial Park.

In case of emergency when broadleaf weeds and grasses are over 3 inches high and corn is 15 inches high, lorox and surfactant WK can be applied as a directed spray when cultivating.

BURNS LEAVES

Do not spray over the top of corn with lorox because it burns the leaves.

Lorox is a contact weed killer and must be handled as such. Follow the directions on the label of the container for rates.

Progeny testing in many herds is possibly the best way dairymen can be reasonably sure of a bull's breeding value.

The best method to get a random sample of daughters by any bull is through the artificial insemination program. Progeny testing allows carefully selected young sires to have 2,000 to 3,000 services in many herds over a far-reaching area.

SIRE GOOD CALVES

Many bulls with a natural service proof in a single herd, sired good calves in early days of artificial breeding, according to Penn State extension dairy specialists, but failed to continue this when they were used heavily.

Most A. I. studs are testing their young sires before allowing them heavy service. Tests in Pennsylvania, New York, and New England show that carefully selected young sires equal and often exceed the performance of bulls purchased with

SCRANTON HAS 12 IN JERSEY

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Twelve of New Jersey's 40 delegates to the Republican national convention favor Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton as their presidential candidate, an Associated Press survey showed today.

Five of the 12 said they would personally back Scranton at this time while the others listed him as their preference but said they were still uncommitted.

Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, leading candidate nationally for the nomination, has eight solid supporters among the New Jersey delegates and one more who lists him as his personal preference.

In previous AP polls, before Scranton announced his candidacy, four delegates lined up solidly behind the Pennsylvanian and two more said they preferred him. Goldwater had the support of eight New Jersey delegates in the last poll three weeks ago.

Thirty members of the state's officially uncommitted delegates were reached in the latest poll.

Ten of them felt Goldwater would win the nomination, but one Goldwater backer predicted Scranton would get the support of the majority of the state's delegation. "But it won't be more than 25 votes," he said.

Audience Reaction All-Important Says "Say When's" Arthur James

"Say When" host Art James, gets a holiday helping hand from pretty Emily Banks all done up in red, white and blue for the Fourth of July. Emily, on the program, sticks to more fashionable fashions Monday through Friday at noon (in color, NBC).

By: RUTH E. THOMPSON

Has the pretty brunette worked things out shrewdly enough so she'll be able to walk away with that lavish mink coat? Or, will she be done out of it by the determined guy with his eye on the sailboat?

That's the kind of suspense "Say When" features daily at noon on NBC in full drooling color. But, as with all Goodson-Todman audience-participation shows, the winning of the prizes is the only thing left to chance.

Bright young emcees like Art James are scouted and snapped up as firmly as MGMs movie big-leaguers a generation ago. And nothing is apred to keep an audience happy . . . and involved. Seems Goodson-Todman have found you just won't have as much fun watching at home as you ought, if the studio audience isn't whopping it up.

STUDIO WARM-UP

"You bet the studio warm-up is important," says handsome Art James. He took a giant step in his own career when fresh from his native Michigan he was given "warming up the 'Concentration' audience" as his audition tryout in 1958. Flying colors and full steam ahead! He was "Concentration's" announcer for two years, did the Jack Paar show and was already successful when Goodson-Todman tapped him for "Say When."

"Without audience reaction we just have no show. Nothing comes across to me, nothing goes across to the viewers. Yes, it's rare, but it does happen. We all dread it. Not that we want faked reactions. That wouldn't go over either. Just spontaneous, outgoing cheering for the victor or rooting for the underdog."

SOUNG TOO DEAD

This sensitivity about audience reaction is said to be the reason all G-T shows come from New York. "The sound from Hollywood is too dead. None of the studios there were built for audiences originally. They were movie sound stages. Sound is swallowed."

But the bouncing around of sound, so an audience can hear itself, is still only part of the consideration. Legend has it that Mark Goodson personally used to bounce up and down in a prospective theater's seats to test the comfort.

Everybody's busier now . . . but it seems even now when new seats were in the offing a simpatco NBC veepee brought a sample over to Goodson's Park Avenue office for "testing."

DEPENDS ON EMCEE

But if you really want to know what makes the show click — sit back (comfortably of course) in the midst of the studio audience. Cough out the last of the laughter announcer Wayne Howell has successfully warmed up and watch Art.

First off, he's faster, much faster, with his reflexes, his quips than you realize at home. And its constant. During the commercials he and Howell trade fast quips to keep the mood perking, the contestants relaxed.

"No, we don't rehearse or preplan. We're so used to working together that by now I suppose you'd say we have a natural hard core repertoire to fall back on. Other than that everything just has to be spontaneous."

WATCHING CLOCK

"The hardest part of the show? For me it's watching the split seconds tick away on the clock and trying to keep a lagging contestant within the time (Continued On Page 4)

WEAR SOMETHING WHITE AFTER DARK

When the sun goes down, pedestrian deaths go up. The reduced visibility during the darkness hours makes both walking and driving conditions more difficult.

It is no coincidence that the greatest number of pedestrian deaths occur during December—the month with the most hours of darkness. As the days grow longer, the toll drops off sharply.

The AAA offers the following advice: You can protect yourself best when walking at night by wearing a light article of clothing, preferably shoes or stockings (trousers in the case of men) since the headlight beam of most cars will first hit low on the body. On the other hand, dark clothing greatly reduces the distance you can be seen by approaching vehicles, in some cases, as much as 50 per cent. Don't take unnecessary chances. Wear something white at night, and give the driver a chance to see you.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE

In a recent program trying to find out what happened to patriotism, NBC producer Don Hyatt says that, as far as a lot of kids are concerned, it's still flourishing. Excerpts from school themes include:
"This is a fine country and it can get to be even a better one."

"Our country has freedom, and freedom is fun."
Then there's one from a young chap who found "best on Earth" too limited, states "I think the United States is the best country on Earth, Mars, Jupiter or any other planet!"

STRAW-HAT FOR MERV

Pennsylvania, Maine, Massachusetts and New York will be seeing TV's Merv Griffin this summer starting in a revival of the 1926 show titled "Broadway." Theaters in Pennsylvania which have booked the show, which has a cast of 20, include: Bucks County Playhouse, New Hope, and the Pocono Playhouse in Mountainhome, Massachusetts bookings include: Mount Tom Playhouse in Holyoke, and the Lake Whalom Playhouse in Fitchburg.

TOO SOON

Rudy Vallee tried to join the Navy during his high school years, was sent back home to Westbrook, Me., when it turned out he was only 15 years old. The current star of "On Broadway 'Tonight'" and "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" thereafter stuck with school all the way up to and including graduation from Yale.

limit without panicking her (or him)."

"Not," interspersed producer Bob Rowe, "that something contestants really need is a stake. Hardship cases are not our type. You'll notice we're heavy on fashions and other nice extras. Most people who try for 'Say When' already have the basics. A trip would be nice, maybe, or a coat, or a boat." Though not everybody wings the big ones, Rowe believes the typical "Say When" contestant actually enjoys the game, the figuring out of retail prices to reach but not exceed a pre-announced goal.

FEW HOURS DAILY

That day's show over, Art headed for the door. "They're going to talk to possible future contestant's from today's audience. Notice they don't want me around. So all I spend with the program is a couple of hours a day. That and my Sunday evening 'It's Academic' is my present regular schedule."

You see, I'm really a lazy man." The quietly tense way he says it, though, lets you know he's the only one who believes it.

Then he smiles an explanation that makes sense. "I've seen too many people lose their values under pressure. I don't want it to happen to me." Later today I'm going to play golf, I just love it."

YANK TRYOUT

In his precollege sandlot days as a baseball hopeful he got a Yankee tryout. But that's all over. "Now if I can just get my wife past the third hole!" He shoots in the 70's. She's a beginner. "Oh I nag her and berate her, little helpful things like that to get her started." She's a former actress, Jane Hamilton.

"Right now I'm hoping for some weekends with the kids (Jeffrey 7, Jennifer 4) at Easthampton (the lovely Long Island town where the original 'Home Sweet Home' stands.)"

"Vacation? Well the show's on — with no repeats — 52 weeks a year. Ordinarily a couple of weeks off a year is about it for me. But this year there'll be a little more time because we've have to tape ahead to free technicians and equipment for the political conventions. Hope I can get in some summer stock . . . maybe a comedy role like 'Come Blow Your Horn' or 'Mary, Mary.'"

And if you're planning a New York visit, come on over, Art says, and be studio audience. Just remember, those conventions may make a difference for you too, though. Better write ahead for tickets to be sure "Say When" is itself in town when you are.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

James Pritchett, currently starring as Dr. Matt Powers in "The Doctors," says he liked the Jeff Nichols character he used to play in "The Secret Storm," but adds, "It's a funny thing, I always thought he was a good guy — but the public thought he was a home-wrecker."

CRONKITE GETS AWARD

The Capital Press Club of Washington, D.C. cited Walter Cronkite for "honest, sensitive and forthright" broadcasting. Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson was honorary chairman of the banquet at which the award was presented.

Nicholas Pryor (who plays Tom Baxter in "Another World") captained the lacrosse team during his freshman year at Yale.

COMMERCIALS ON TV ARE NOT REMEMBERED

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Advertising agencies are turning out television commercials at a rate of about 40,000 a year, most of which reach the air. And if some superwoman housewife last year had dedicated herself to watching her set 18 hours a day, seven days a week, she would have been exposed to 115 sales pitches a day.

These statistics were gathered by an advertising executive, Gordon Webber, for a speech and reprinted in the current issue of the trade magazine Broadcasting.

Webber, however, went on to note that, in normal usage of television, "there are disturbing signs to the effect that while the housewife is looking at some (commercials), there are an awful lot of them she isn't looking at, or having looked at, can't remember."

FEW CAN REMEMBER

He reported the results of a recent survey made of one popular hour-long program which carried eight commercials. It found that 21 per cent of a sampling of viewers could not remember any of the commercials; 19 per cent, only one and 17 per cent, two.

What was most disturbing to advertisers was the large number of viewers who were not able to remember a single sales message on the show.

Television columnists, like other tillers of the vineyard, take vacations, and this one is about to start one. I'll be back in a month, writing from Hollywood and taking a look at the programs being whipped up for the new season.

CONTRASTS

Meredith Willson ran a musical gamut in three years. At 19 he and his flute played the martial music of John Phillip Sousa . . . and at 22 he switched to the classical perfection of the New York Philharmonic serving as first flutist under Arturo Toscanini.

PRETTY AS A POSY?

New gal Nancy Dickerson recalls a compliment from the camel driver Lyndon B. Johnson invited to visit him in the U.S. when he was vice president. "When you smile," Bashir told Nancy, "it is like petals falling from a flower."

45 INJURED IN NEW RIOT IN FLORIDA

By PAUL WILLS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP) — Hundreds of white segregationists raced into a civil rights march Thursday night, screaming and flailing at Negroes in this city's worst outbreak of racial violence.

Integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King said only the non-violence of Negroes "saved the city from a bloody night of terror."

At least 45 persons were injured and 15 of them were treated at a hospital. Dozens were arrested.

ASK FEDERAL ORDER

Protests were halted Friday as integrationists asked federal court in Jacksonville to overturn an order by Gov. Farris Bryant barring any group—integrationist or segregationist—from demonstrating after 8:30 p.m.

King said that he appealed to the White House for help at the height of Thursday nights melee and was assured the matter would be investigated. He frequently has called for federal marshals' protection. STATE POLICE THREATENED

For the first time in three weeks of almost daily confrontations, State Police were openly threatened. On at least two occasions, angry whites surrounded isolated groups of state troopers and tried to liberate Negro prisoners.

The Negro parade moved into the downtown square exactly like others which have been held. The proposed route went around the side of the square in which at least 200 whites were holding a segregation rally.

When the Negro column approached, the whites burst through police lines and into the marchers with fists. Some of the Negroes were hit; some of the whites were clubbed by police and arrested.

WHITES ROUT NEGROES

The parade disintegrated and never reformed. Remnants of the march continued around the square with whites attacking again and again. Finally, the march turned into a rout. The Negroes ran toward their section of town, pursued by screaming whites who would hit once or twice, and race on.

The marchers straggled back to their starting point with some near hysteria.

King said that some were ready to get guns and return to the scene of the downtown riot.
